2nd September 1666

Dear diary, In the evening late on a barky called Thomas Farriners. He went to bed and a sparkle popt out and of fair started. My maid came rushing in and told me what had happened. I horribly came in I was shocked what I saw. The fire was burning in flames there were peaking smoke. People were running quickly. The fire was burning what was in its path people were screaming and lots of people were stuck in their houses.
Also the fire burnt down book were.
The fire was going wild. I could hear people screaming and babies screaming. The fire looked like a huge orange. I could smell the smoke. I could touch criped wood. I looked horribly out my window. The fire was was the picture.
It destroyed the river Thames and the tower of London. I was screaming and shouting. It will spread if you don't stop it now. The country of London was burning.
I was so scared.

people were trying to escape the fire but it was too strong. London was in reas is how and there were nothing you could do about it. Only a small amount of people died. It was a terrible watching the fire. we tried to stop fire works. I scared my horse and wife.
I felt like I was in London during the from my my people
