After the last supper Jesus and the 12 disciples went to the garden of Gethsemane. Before Jesus started praying he asked his disciples to watch over him but they all fell asleep except Judas who went to the Roman soldiers to help them arrest Jesus. Judas betrayed Jesus. He led the Roman soldiers to Jesus and parted him with a kiss.

The soldiers led Jesus to Pontius Pilate (Roman governor) and was tortured to death on a cross. Jesus was beaten and made fun of and he carry his own cross, he must die. When he died, he needed help carrying his cross. In the end he died and his friend Joseph carried him to a tomb and left them there. Some days later Jesus wonder that tomb for 3 days and Mary came to visit him when she was for days an angel; The angel explained to them that Jesus was alive and wanted to see the rest of his disciples.
