NEWSLETTER 21 April 2023

Welcome back to Term 5!
 I hope you all had a restful Easter break and managed to spend time with friends and family. I'm hoping the summer term will see more sunshine soon!
 As ever, Term 5 and 6 are busy, so please look at the calendar on this weekly newsletter to keep up to date with things.

Coronation Tea Party
 Just a reminder that we will be having a celebratory Coronation Tea party between 2pm and 3.30pm on 5th May. All parents and friends welcome. We are hoping to celebrate outside with garden games, singing and a parade of crowns!

Strike Action
 Sadly, the Government have failed to reach an agreement with the NEU to avoid further strike action.
 To be clear, the pay offer that was made, was not fully funded. Therefore, schools were expected to find the money for it, from existing budgets, which are already stretched.
 If you would like to learn more, please see Pay up: strike action FAQ | NEU
As a result of this, Chestnut Class (Year 2) will be closed on Thursday, 27th April and Tuesday 2nd May.
 Any keyworkers that need essential child care, please contact the office.

Richborough Roman Fort
 On Wednesday six children from Pine class visited Richborough Roman Fort. During the visit, they were filmed for an upcoming episode of Newsround. The pupils toured the centre with a historian asking many questions about the site. They all enjoyed the experience especially the staged sword fight to finish.
