

The Plane Crash

I was going on my first flight to Norway. I was really nervous walking to the old and rusty plane. "It's going to be a bumpy ride" my mum said. The Pilot said over the intercom: "We will be leaving in 5 minutes." Everyone was excited, but me and when we took off my stomach dropped.

In the middle of the flight the plane shook violently which woke me up. I looked out of my window, I saw a storm coming towards us, every light on the plane cut out. . . . Crash lightning struck the plane, before I knew we were plummeting to the ground.

The plane crashed, me, my mum and 3 other people survived, everyone rushed out but I sprinted back in because of a rainbow dragon, "what are we going to do," I screamed!
