

It was a beautiful sunny day. I was playing in a park with red bird. I was laughing and running playing tag with red bird.

Suddenly, a rainbow portal opened with a BIG sound. I fell on the ground. I got a sword bag and a map then I went inside the rainbow portal. Red bird followed me. I felt dizzy as I was in the rainbow portal as I went round and round.

When I opened my eyes, I saw black floating castle. I went down the hallway and saw a blue bright shiny sword stuck in a magic carpet. I got out my map and the blue bright shiny sword magically came to me. I put my sword in my sword bag and looked at my map. I had to collect seven swords to go to my world. I jumped out the castle, red bird followed me and I fell into a magic river. A coin magically appeared I got out the river and I went to pick it up. I got sucked in the coin.

To be continued... For next chapter.
