Dear Diary,

I was going to the woods but I fell down a hole it was gloomy and dark. When I finally reached the floor light boomed into my eyes. Then I saw a strange girl she was shocked and pointed at my glasses. I showed her my glasses and she put them on herself it was blurry for her but not for me. She held my hand and guided me to her village. It smelt nice where the fire was as they were cooking fish, when I ate the fish it was nice. I started to get sleepy they took me to their huts I fell asleep.
