World Book Day—Thursday, 7th March

Just a reminder that it's World Book Day next week and we are very excited!
We have asked children to either dress up as their favourite book characters OR wear PJs to school and bring a teddy, to read a story to.
As ever, please try and reuse costumes or make them from existing clothes - get creative!
We're looking forward to celebrating everything BOOKS including a great book swap organised by FOGS!

Red Nose Day 15th March 2024

We will be celebrating RND as usual. We have a few noses left to sell from the office.

On Thursday the Pines were visited by Weird Fish Lady Gloria Barnett. She came in to talk about our oceans and all the wonderful creatures which call it their home. Gloria has been scuba diving for years and shared lots of videos of the under water life she has seen over her time around the world. Gloria showed them her diving equipment before getting Mr Wells to try it on. Gloria is also an author, writing nonfiction and fiction books about the ocean. She is returning next week for book day to sell sign books which can be ordered from the website below:
