

RED NOSE DAY 2019

We have been doing loads of fun activities in school today dressed in our PJ's. We have raised a total of £332.00 for Comic Relief from the sale of 160 Red Noses alongside your £1 donations for today.

Thank you for your support.

MOTHERS DAY TEA PARTY

We would like to invite all Mothers/ Grandmothers & Carers to an after school Tea Party to celebrate Mothers Day. It will be held in the school hall at 3pm on Friday, 29th March. Come along and join us for a cup of tea or coffee and a piece of cake.

Please can we remind you that children are not allowed to play ball games on the school premises on arrival in the morning. This is a busy time with children and parents arriving at school and we recently have had a parent hit with a football. Please consider others around you and wait patiently for the doors to open.

W I woke to the sound of rushing water, soon I woke in a row on confusion I spot water making its way through the gap under the door. I panicked I grab whatever my coat that is hanging in my wardrobe. I run into Jack's room he is sat there hugging in teddy. Frightened. I grab his coat and take him by the hand. I hesitate to open the door not knowing what's on the other side when suddenly I hear a shout. It's mum calling mine and Jack name. Just as I am about to open the door flying open with mum bursting in she is soaked. She grabs our hands and runs. "What's going on!" I yell over the sound over gushing water.
