CHURCH OF ENGLAND PRIMARY SCHOOL

NEWSLETTER 29th March 2019

Easter

It is a little early in the church calendar to be celebrating Easter, however with the holidays falling early, it means our Easter week is next week. Lots of the children have been learning about the true meaning of Easter in their classes.

As usual we will be holding our decorated egg competition next week, all eggs need to be brought in by Friday morning as we will be judging them during the morning. The winners will be announced in the celebration assembly at 2.30pm. ALL eggs (hard boiled or blown) need to be collected on Friday, if children want to keep them.

FOGS EASTER RAFFLE

We will be selling raffle tickets from the school office from Monday for £1. This will be for one ticket however you can buy more than one to better your chances BUT you can only win once. This helps to make it fairer and we will have more happy children. There will be a winner from each class.

Exciting dates for your diary...

We have booked the Summer Fete to be held this year on Saturday, 29 June. So much work goes into this event so please plan to come along and support it.

FOGS are also arranging a School Camp Out this year. We think it will be a very exciting fun time to spend a night with children and their families camped out on the field.

This will be on Friday, 12 July.

More information will follow but please pop these dates on your calendar for now.

WRITER OF THE WEEK

The nominations this week are: Chhiluma, Kallen, Liam G, Lotty, Ella and Isla-Rose.

The winner is: CHHILUMA!
Please turn over to read her work.

Titanic Escape Story!

As the monstrous black ship barreled its banking voice, people waved their goodbyes like trees in the wind. Elegantly, birds soared on their wings amongst the tiny boats. Titanic cut through the rushing waves as it was lead to the open ocean.

We settled in quite nicely in room 105, deck C. I started exploring the huge ship from the corridors to the ballroom I had never seen and nothing more magnificent in my life. The crystal chandelier hung above the splendid dance floor. As passengers began to take their partners hands the orchestra began to play. Papa unexpectedly took my hand and lead me to the dance floor. We gracefully twined and whirled around until the moon shone through the glass dome upon us. After dinner we made our way to our bed.

I woke up to the sound of echoing beams as panic spread through the 2nd class rooms. The cabin filled with icy cold water leaving everyone soaked. We felt the monstrous black ship tilting, tossing everyone to the wall. We quickly ran to the door. Clutching its handle I turned it, awaiting what was on the other side!

A group of people rushed towards the deck sprinting for their lives; panicking, fear filling inside them. Fighting against the weak and strong, shout and yell I pushed and shoved through the crowd using my elbow as a shield. Finally, I made it to the top deck not knowing where. Mama and Papa were, I started seeking for them hoping they were alright.
