

On Tuesday, Starfish, Seahorses and Stingrays all took part in African dance workshops. The children enjoyed listening to a mixture of African music and learnt some fantastic dance routines. At the end of the day all classes performed their dance routines to Key Stage 2. The children were amazing! Well done!

CHURCHY CHATTER

This week Collective worship was about pancakes, ash and wilderness wanderings as Lent began. We thought about fasting, giving things up and also how ashes and the cross help us to remember to say sorry for the things we get wrong as we head towards Easter. We also journeyed with Jesus through 40 days and 40 nights of the wilderness, a time when he prayed to God and asked for encouragement and support, and thought about how that helps us ask for help when we are having a difficult time, and also support those around us in our school community.

Recommend a book

This week Mrs Rhodes has recommended a novel for our parents. A Thousand Splendid Suns is a 2007 novel by Afghan-American author Khaled Hosseini. It is his second, following his bestselling 2003 debut, The Kite Runner.

This is a fantastic and emotional read.
