

20.01.22 L.I. To write an imitation poem.
I can explain what is meant by an imitation poem.
I can plan my poem, closely basing it on Jabberwocky.
I can include some of the features of Jabberwocky.

The Flabber Pocky

In a vast pillig and tiny foels

Did pyte and tinkle in the tawbe

All pimsy were t potef nose

And the somble cats outlabe

Beware the flabber pocky m x o i r l

The paws that scratch the jaws that catch

Beware the DUBDUB bird and ignore the terrible panda snatcher

She took her diamond spear

in hand long time + tankame fo e

She sought SO fested she by t noodle boodle t nee and stood awake in the og

Story Planner

- I can think of words to describe the Mother Sun
- I can write my ideas in full sentences
- I can use finger spaces
- I can write neatly on the line

Beginning
 Long ago
 there lived a
 sun mother.
 She was <sup>big</sup>
 and <sup>powerful</sup> ~~big~~ She <sup>created</sup> ~~made~~ <sup>powerful</sup>
 the world.

Middle
 The sun mother
 created grass and flowers. The grass smelled <sup>beautiful</sup> ~~big~~ <sup>beautiful</sup>
 like <sup>honey</sup> ~~honey~~ <sup>honey</sup>
 The sun mother
 created animals.
 She brought <sup>ants</sup> ~~ants~~ <sup>ants</sup> and <sup>lady</sup> ~~lady~~ <sup>lady</sup> bugs.

End
 Then she created the moon and stars. They looked <sup>bright</sup> ~~big~~ <sup>bright</sup>
 and the sun
 mother she
 felt happy
 but she was tired.

Story Planner

- I can think of words to describe the Mother Sun
- I can write my ideas in full sentences
- I can use finger spaces
- I can write neatly on the line

Beginning
 Long ago there
 lived a sun
 mother. She was kind
 because she made the world.

Middle
 The sun mother
 created the grass and the flowers. The flowers were beautiful
 and calming.

End
 Then she created
 the moon and stars.
 They looked shine and <sup>bright</sup> ~~big~~ <sup>bright</sup>
 she felt <sup>happy</sup> ~~big~~ <sup>happy</sup>