

The life of My teacher

Mrs Davies

Mrs Davies was born in a Bungalow in Meopham July 25th 1965. She lived with her Mum (Poppy), Dad (Cedric) brother (Karl). She also lived with 1 goldfish and 3 rabbits (Poppy the goldfish and Topsy Mopsy Candy and Tally.) Mopsy has died sadly.

School and Early life

Mrs Davies enjoyed playing with dolls and making MSchegg with her brother Karl. Her first school was Selsted primary school (She didn't go to preschool) one of the schools old stories (the school is over 150 years old) was when there was a lightning storm and a girl called Mithie got killed when the bell got loose and hit her on the back of the neck that instantly killed her the gravestone is known to lie in the back of Selsted church.

Jobs

When she was 13 years old she and her friends were chamber maids and stripped the beds. She got 2.50 every Sunday (it's not alot but that was alot for them.)

(Mrs Davies didn't go to collage and university). Her next job was a apprentice to a shoe maker after that she got married.

Marriage and kids

Mrs Davies got married at 19 to Steve Davies. She was proposed at Lydden club after that she had two sons they were called Kyle and Ryan.

Later life

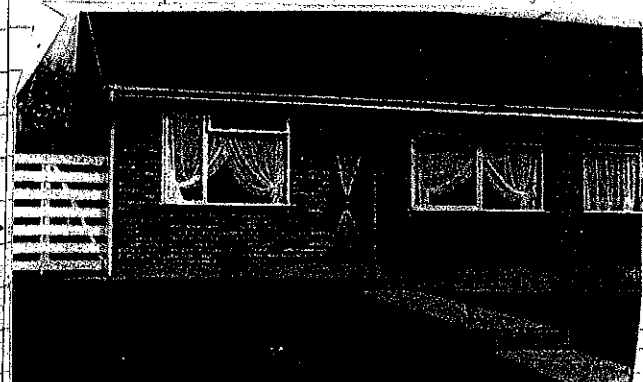

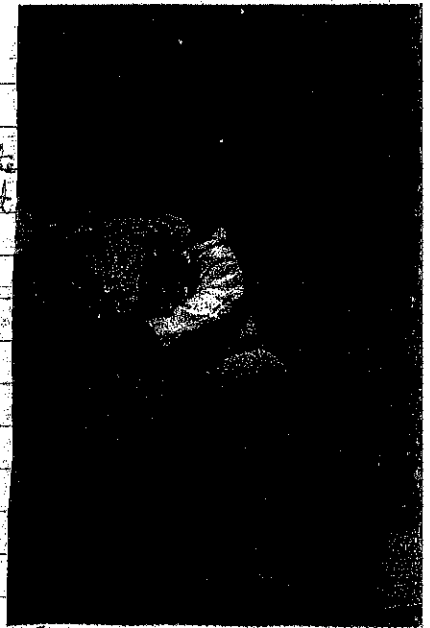

She joined the school as a dinner lady in 1994. She swiftly moved up the ranks of the school then she decided she would train to be a TA.

Meeting Me

Mrs Davies met me when I joined in year 3 it's been two years since I met her I think she's really nice and is going to do amazing things. Her house is a young child.
